RAC Forum

September 6, 2017

Reestablish, support and grow the sense that we are partners in the ground breaking research that is the essence of UC Berkeley.

Deliver outstanding support to the research and teaching mission.

Test the idea that we can be more effective and efficient partners when we work as smaller teams across different services and more closely with staff in the departments and colleges.

(Modeled after ERSO)

Established some guidelines to facilitate partnerships between Deans and CSS leadership.

In the midst of a search for a regional director to lead this transition.

Started work on a web portal that will include information and workflow support.
